Where to Get Help?

Tuesday, 28 November 2017 10:25 (30 minutes)

This talk will outline the locations and current literature and various helpful tutorials available on the JACoW and Source Forge websites. This talk aims to give insight to logical filing of the information, and give example how the information can be further edited and continuously improved.